

All Saints' weekly email: Advent 2

Dear Friends

This year we focus on Mark's Gospel: after a leap into the middle of his book last week we return to the opening verses this Sunday. Mark's telling of the story is heavily weighted towards describing how Jesus came to be crucified and what that meant. About half his gospel is about the Passion of Jesus, and the first half is really an extended introduction to it, as he describes Jesus' life, teaching and work, giving us a picture of the Messiah as a parable of God. The opening eight verses, our Gospel on Sunday, are very compressed. They nod to the Old Testament to get us swiftly to the protagonist, Jesus; in introducing him, they then take us past his life, death and resurrection to Mark's present time, and our present time:

'I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.'

That prophesied gift of the Holy Spirit, Pentecost, in turn brings us seamlessly to where this story ends and ours begins.

A new chapter of our All Saints story opens this Sunday when the appointment of a new Vicar for our parish will be announced at the end of Mass. There will be a simultaneous release of the announcement via email and social media at about 1230pm on Sunday.

Sadly, because of some positive tests for Covid-19 among our musicians, we won't have a full choir with us for the next two Sundays; I am very grateful to our Cantor, Ian Lyon, who will sing at Mass as he did for some months earlier in the year, and also to Felicity Hayward, who has agreed to sing at Evensong where we need at least two singers. Our Organist Jeremiah Stephenson, who was not here last Sunday, will play and direct as necessary.

Supporting All Saints Parish Giving Scheme:

Thank you to all who give in various ways to support the work of All Saints. While we regret that the previous online registration facility for the Parish Giving Scheme is no longer available, our Treasurer recommends that this remains our preferred option for giving: it allows contributions to be anonymous and deals with GiftAid, which saves our office a lot of time.

It is no longer possible to register for the scheme online.

There are now two options, for each of which you need the parish code: 230623075.

You can join the scheme either by phoning 0333 002 1271 and quoting the code or

by requesting a form from the parish office.

The following link will take you to a page which explains how the scheme works:
